

About Me

Things you may want to know about me

My name is Katherine.

I live just outside London with my husband and our dog and cat.

I like long walks with my dog. I love food especially pasta. I enjoy reading and my favourite books are mystery stories.

My job is to help run a charity that supports disabled children, young people and their families. I have worked here for 10 years.

I think that everybody should have the same chances in life to live their best life.

It makes me sad when people get treated differently because of their background, race, disability or health condition. I want to help everybody to have control and choice in their lives and get their voices heard.
